Wilson Tax Law Group named to list of California's "Top 20 Boutique Law Firms"

NEWPORT BEACH, CA, OCTOBER 31, 2016 — Wilson Tax Law Group APLC, has been named to the list of "Top Boutiques in California 2016," as chosen by the Los Angeles and San Francisco Daily Journals. Only 20 law firms in all of California were selected for the honor.

"We are honored to have been selected as one of the top boutique firms in California," said Joseph P. Wilson, managing shareholder. "This recognition reflects the faith that our clients have put in us and the excellent results that our attorneys have achieved in both complex and day-to-day tax controversy matters."

Boutique firms are those that specialize in a niche area of law, such as tax, litigation, appellate, corporate transactions, bankruptcy, environmental, immigration, intellectual property, and labor and employment. The Daily Journal honor is one of the most coveted in the state by any boutique firm. California has over 225,000 attorneys. Literally thousands of California firms fit in the "boutique" category, making selection for this list a highly prized honor.

Wilson Tax Law Group APLC (www.wilsontaxlaw.com) is a boutique Orange County tax controversy law firm that specializes in representation of individuals and businesses before federal and state tax authorities with audits, appeals, FBAR, offshore compliance, litigation and criminal defense. The firm was founded in 2014 by Joseph P. Wilson, a former Federal tax prosecutor, trial attorney for the IRS and trial attorney for the Franchise Tax Board.
